Artist Spotlight

HUSSAIN IHFAL AHMED

20 December to 03 January

Hussain Ihfal Ahmed, known as “Iphpha,” is a prominent Maldivian artist with a distinguished career spanning over two decades. Growing up in the Maldives, he draws inspiration from the islands' vibrant culture and natural beauty. Iphpha has showcased his work through numerous solo exhibitions and live events, as well as participating in international art fairs. His expertise across various creative techniques and mediums is notable, with a special affinity for oil, watercolor, and his signature medium—coffee.

Iphpha's innovative coffee paintings have earned widespread acclaim within both the Maldivian art community and the public. His recent work in impressionism has further solidified his reputation. In 2018, Iphpha made history as the first Asian artist to host an underwater exhibition.

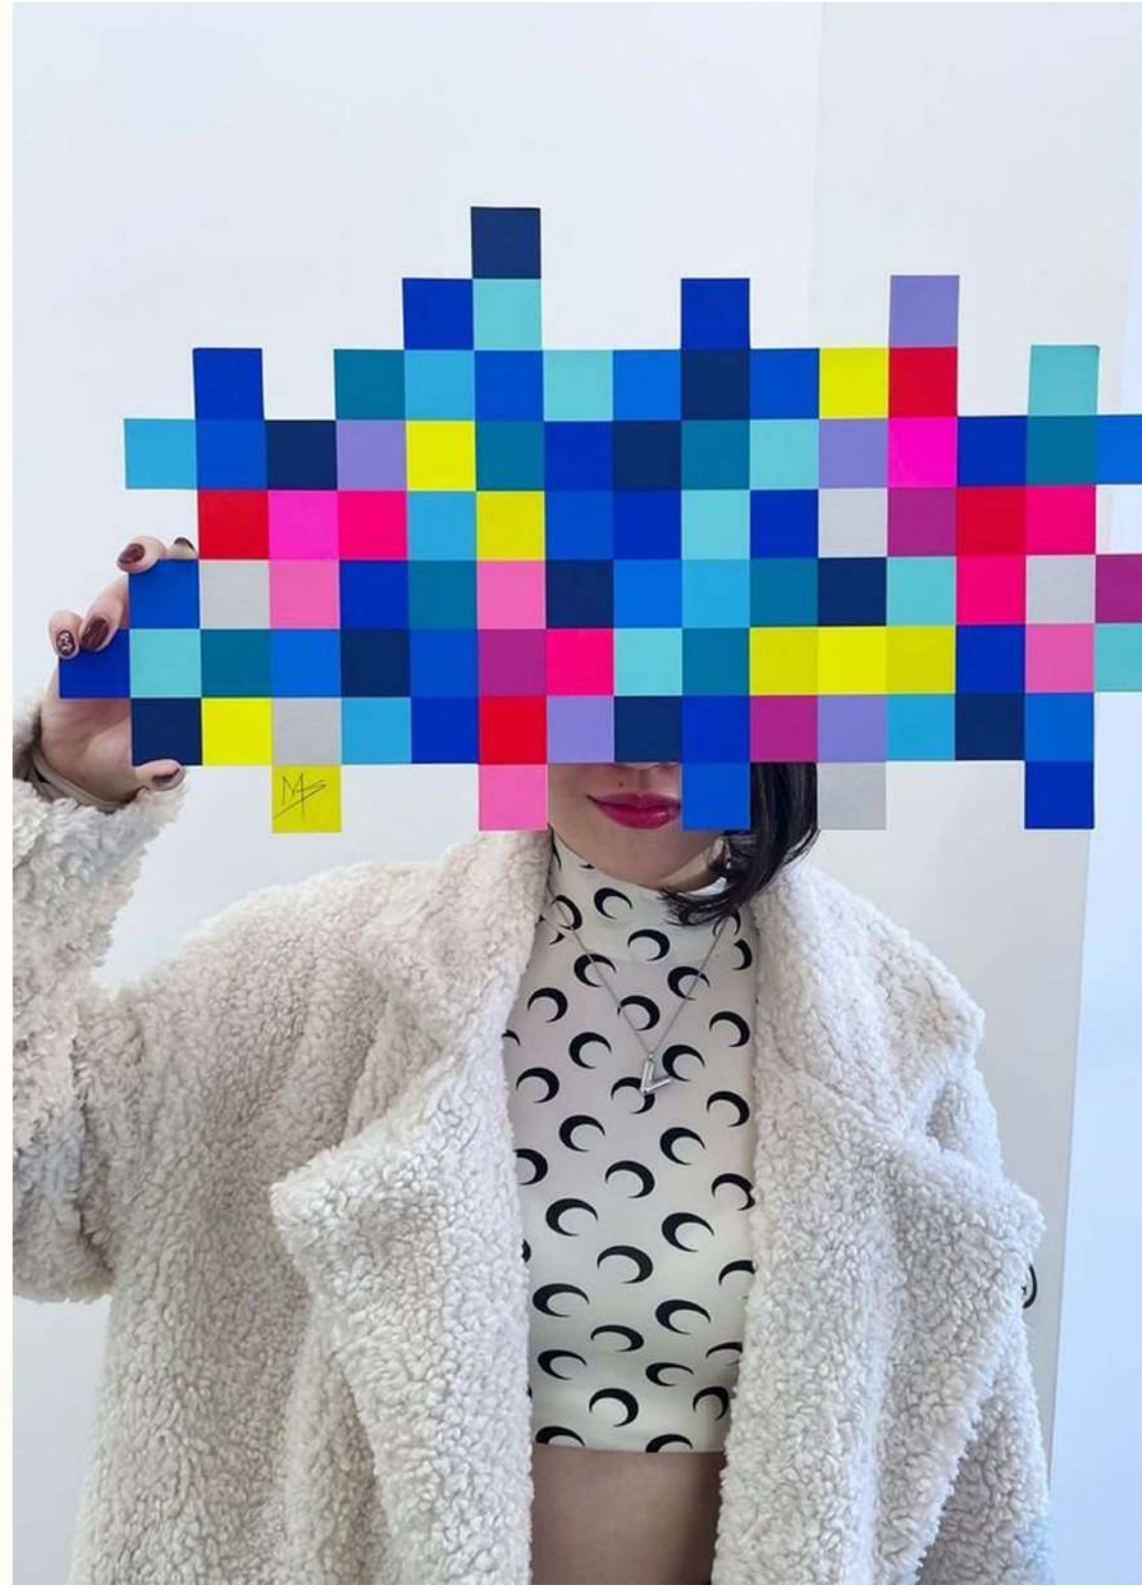

MAKERS SPACE

27 December to 29 December

A Japan-based artist known as Makers Space, whose gender, age, and nationality remain undisclosed, is a self-taught creator who has developed a distinctive pixel style through extensive exploration.

Embracing the mantra “Stay Pixelated,” Makers Space transforms a vast array of information—people, landscapes, atmospheric currents, and emotions—into pixelated forms, reconstructing them into a new visual reality. With a unique color sensibility, Makers Space meticulously builds each pixel to convey their worldview through canvas or sculpture.

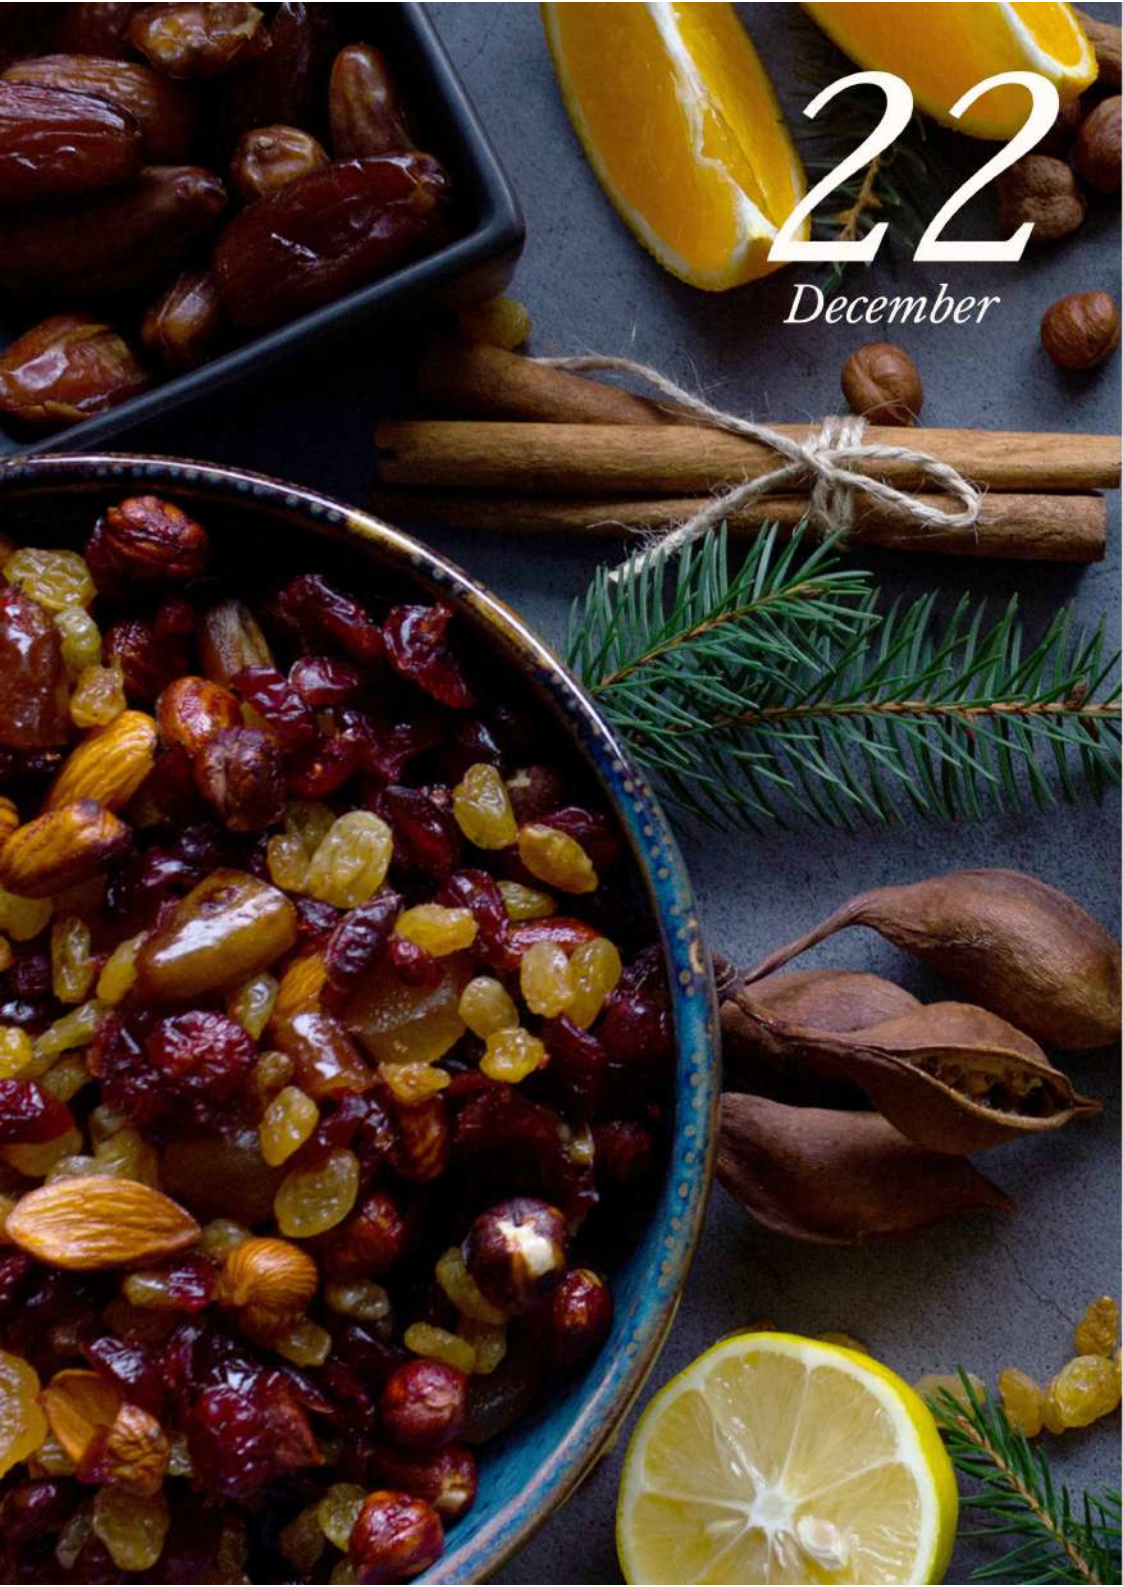

JEANNINE PLATZ

26 December to 02 January

Painter, calligrapher, and performance artist, she seamlessly bridges the international art scene with her roots in Hamburg. Her work is renowned for its vibrant harbor images that capture the essence of maritime life and its dynamic rhythms. In addition to her captivating harbour scenes, she is celebrated for her ambitious global art project, Suite View, which explores diverse cultural perspectives through a cohesive visual narrative.

Her virtuosity extends beyond painting and calligraphy to performance art, where her distinctive flair and creative energy shine. Her expressive writing style, marked by a unique blend of grace and intensity, further distinguishes her work. Whether on the global stage or within her hometown, she continues to captivate audiences with her innovative and multifaceted approach to art.
